

JCPS 175th Anniversary Celebration Speaker Series

Dates & Topics:

October 28, 2013

David Lineberry presents: "An Evening with The Authors"

JCHS Little Theater, Entrance on Lafayette Street, 4:30 p.m. - 6 p.m.

Join JCHS Alum David Lineberry as he engages authors Laramie Thompson and Suzanne Richter about their newly published book Jefferson City Public Schools: The First 175 Years of the Journey. Hear more about the fascinating stories that made it to the book and ask questions as a part of this great conversation about the district's rich history.

November 12, 2013

"In Search of Legitimacy: the Jefferson City Public School System in the 19th Century"

Hawthorn Community Room, 3600 Amazonas Drive, 11 a.m. - Noon

Enjoy lunch while hearing Dr. Kremer, Missouri State Historical Society Executive Director and local historian, discuss how JCPS officials in the 19th Century sought to persuade locals that public education was important, as high-quality as area private schools and ultimately, worthy of taxpayer support.

March 10, 2014

Hawthorn Community Room, 3600 Amazonas Drive, 11 a.m. - Noon

Enjoy lunch while listening to Dr. Kremer explain how the Jefferson City Public Schools have adjusted over time to new demands and new realities in an ever-changing world.

April 22, 2014

Walter Schroeder presents: "Learning Amidst World War II"

East Elementary, 1229 East McCarty, 4:30 p.m. - 6 p.m.

Hear JCHS Alum Walter Schroeder, who attended Broadway School during WWII, relive what was happening inside the classroom during the 1940s and how JCPS and its students played a major part of the war efforts here at home
