

Professional/Personal References

Please list 2 professional/personal references (former/current employers, neighbor who can vouch for your character and/or work ethic, pastor, etc.):

1. Name of Reference: _____

_____ (name of student) is applying for a help desk course for the 2017-2018 school year. In this course, students will learn customer service, time management, and technology experience while also gaining experience with communication, collaboration, and organization to help them become better at working with people in the area of technology assistance.

Please briefly describe why you think this student would be a good candidate for this course: _____

Please discuss this student's work ethic, if you have personally witnessed it, and/or the character traits this student possesses that would make him/her a good candidate for this course: _____

Signature of Reference: _____

Professional/Personal References

Please list 2 professional/personal references (former/current employers, neighbor who can vouch for your character and/or work ethic, pastor, etc.):

2. Name of Reference: _____

_____ (name of student) is applying for a help desk course for the 2017-2018 school year. In this course, students will learn customer service, time management, and technology experience while also gaining experience with communication, collaboration, and organization to help them become better at working with people in the area of technology assistance.

Please briefly describe why you think this student would be a good candidate for this course: _____

Please discuss this student's work ethic, if you have personally witnessed it, and/or the character traits this student possesses that would make him/her a good candidate for this course: _____

Signature of Reference: _____

TEACHER REFERENCES

Please list 2 teachers/coaches who would recommend you for this course.

1. Name of Teacher: _____

_____ (name of student) is applying for a help desk course for the 2017-2018 school year. In this course, students will learn customer service, time management, and technology experience while also gaining experience with communication, collaboration, and organization to help them become better at working with people in the area of technology assistance.

Please briefly describe why you think this student would be a good candidate for this course: _____

Please discuss this student's work ethic in class/on the field, and the character traits this student possesses that would make him/her a good candidate for this course: _____

Signature of Reference: _____

TEACHER REFERENCES

Please list 2 teachers/coaches who would recommend you for this course.

2. Name of Teacher: _____

_____ (name of student) is applying for a help desk course for the 2017-2018 school year. In this course, students will learn customer service, time management, and technology experience while also gaining experience with communication, collaboration, and organization to help them become better at working with people in the area of technology assistance.

Please briefly describe why you think this student would be a good candidate for this course: _____

Please discuss this student's work ethic in class/on the field, and the character traits this student possesses that would make him/her a good candidate for this course: _____

Signature of Reference: _____