

Third Grade News

Mrs. Eiken's Class

August 17, 2018

Reading: We will be launching our reading workshop this week. We will be discussing such things as how to pick a just right book and reading stamina.

Language Arts: Our skills focus this week will be reviewing some of the second grade skills.

Math: We will be reviewing some second grade skills and starting our unit on addition and subtraction.

Writer's Workshop: We will begin the school year with some basic sentence writing to review capitalization, punctuation, correct spelling of priority words, spacing, and handwriting. We will also write about our summer.

Spelling: We will start our first unit of spelling words next week. If you would like to get a jump start studying, here is our Unit 1 list:

At this point we will not be doing traditional spelling tests. However, practice with spelling our weekly words at home would benefit your child.

Specials

Monday: PE

Tuesday: Music

Wednesday: Art

Thursday: PE

Friday: Music

Social Studies/Science- We will be starting our science with an activity called Saving Fred. We will be busy reviewing and practicing our school-wide PBIS behavior expectations this week, in addition to starting our Second Step social skills curriculum.

Your child may bring a healthy snack to eat in the afternoon. Healthy snacks include such things as grapes, apple slices, cheese and crackers. Your child may also bring a flip top lid bottle of water.

Welcome back to school! - We are off to a great start in third grade. Thanks to all who had an opportunity to visit our room at Open House Tuesday. I also appreciate the effort you have made to get your child's supplies sent in. JUST A REMINDER THAT STUDENTS NEED HEADPHONES OR EARBUDS TO USE CHROMEBOOKS. Remember to contact me with any questions that come to mind: 573-659-3195 or email to lisa.eiken@jcschools.us
