- *I can link my comments to others.
- *I can share my thinking/learning by turning and talking to a partner.

Math:

- *I can use place value to subtract.
- *I can combine place values to subtract.

Writer's Workshop:

- * I can write during the entire independent writing time.
- *I can have a writing conference with my teacher and share my writing celebrations and learn new tips to help me become a better writer.

Please read 20 minutes nightly with your child!
