

CELEBRATE THE MAGIC OF MARDI GRAS DURING #JCREADS week!

Tuesday, March 5, 2019 is this year's Mardi Gras celebration. Help your child decorate a Mardi Gras style mask to look like their favorite book character. Please nothing scary. If your child has a copy of the book they are basing their mask off of, please send it to school that day for your child to share.

Some good ideas are Pete the Cat, Clifford, Diary of a Wimpy Kid . . . the ideas are endless!

Please send the book character mask to school on Tuesday, March 5 only. We can't wait to see all of our favorite book characters! While this is an optional activity, there will be a small prize for all students who participate!
