

Faherty's Focus

November 11-15

UPCOMING EVENTS

Mon., Nov. 11 - NO SCHOOL!
(Professional Development Day)

Thurs., Nov. 14 - Unit 3 ELA
test; PTO Ornament Night
(5:30-7:30 p.m.)

Fri., Nov. 15 - PTO $1 Hat
Day

Mon., Nov. 18 - historical fiction book quiz due

Fri., Nov. 22 - Growth and Development Talk; November
Ticket Party

Mon., Nov. 25—Fri., Nov. 29
- NO SCHOOL! (Thanksgiving Break)

Thank you to everyone who made time to attend Parent/Teacher Conferences on Tuesday! Our class had 95% participation! It was great to see so many families stop by, and the kids were so excited to share their projects. Please don't hesitate to reach out with any additional questions or concerns you may have.

Congratulations!!! Our 1st Quarter awards were recently presented to the following students:

KING OF READING: Cristian, Leah, and Hasan

SELF-DISCIPLINE: Bryson and Rena

RESPECT: Felix and Harper

RESPONSIBILITY: Levi and Leah

We're excited to welcome a new student to our class. We're glad to have you join us, Shylah!

Please be sure that your child is reading 20 minutes each night! Our next book quiz (historical fiction) is due Monday, Nov. 18th!

This Week's Specials Schedule

Mon. - NO SCHOOL!
Tues. - Art (No Orchestra)
Wed. - Music
Thurs. - P.E./Orchestra
Fri. - Art

Curriculum Corner

COMMUNICATION ARTS - students can read and comprehend historical fiction books on their independent reading level; identify the tone of a poem; use text evidence to discuss a poem; make inferences about figurative language; analyze a poem; summarize a poem's message; write poetry

MATH - students can convert customary measurements; multiply fractions

SCIENCE - students can describe structures of the geosphere, biosphere, hydrosphere, and atmosphere; describe how the systems interact with each other; make a model of earth's movements; identify and describe the layers of the earth

SOCIAL STUDIES - Students can explain the causes of the Civil War and describe the effects of Reconstruction

CharacterPlus

November's trait:

POLITE

~ showing good manners
toward others through speech and actions ~

Favorite Color: PURPLE

Favorite Subject: READING

Favorite Food: TACOS

Favorite Sport: TRACK

Favorite Season: SUMMER

Favorite Book: HARRY POTTER

Favorite Ice Cream Flavor: COOKIE DOUGH

In my free time I like to: READ A BOOK

Someday I want to be: a ZOOLOGIST