Passages

- Use the scroll bar to view long passages
- You can highlight key text in blue or pink
- Sometime tests have two passages with tabs to navigate back and forth

Answer Eliminator

If you aren't sure of the right answer, but can eliminate some, it may be helpful to cross those out

The screenshot shows a digital learning interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with a back arrow, a forward arrow (highlighted in blue), a 'Review' dropdown menu, a 'Bookmark' button, and a close button (X) with a tooltip that says 'Answer Eliminator'. Below the navigation bar, the text 'G5 Math, Unit 3 / 1 of 8' is displayed. The main content area contains a question: 'Which sentence includes an example of parallel structure?'. There are four multiple-choice options: A. A good friend should be very patient and a good listener. B. I walked by a giraffe on my way to school and by a zebra on my way home. C. The teacher discussed using adverbs, combining sentences, and adjectives. D. My uncle is a daredevil; he knows how to skydive and goes spelunking. Option C is crossed out with a thick red line.

Open Response Items

- For some questions, you'll type an answer in a text field
- A basic formatting toolbar may be available

In retrospect, the reader often discovers that the first chapter of a novel or the opening scene of a drama introduces some of the major themes of the work. Write an essay about the opening scene of a drama or the first chapter of a novel in which you explain how it functions in this way.

A basic text formatting toolbar with icons for bold (B), italic (I), underline (U), bulleted list, numbered list, undo, and redo.

In the first chapter of Jane Eyre, Jane is sitting and reading by herself, not allowed to play with her cousins. This helps establish her loneliness. That she finds a book to read, rather than mope, establishes her independence.
