This week's learning targets...

Reading:

I can identify the internal traits of characters.
I can describe a character's relationships and how they change.

Writing:

I can use 1st, 2nd, and 3rd person pronouns.
I can develop a setting, topic, and narrator/characters in a narrative.

Math:

I can use "equal jumps" on a number line to find how many in all.
I can create an array to model multiplication and find factors.
I can use the commutative property to compare two number sentences.
I can use the properties of 0 and 1 in multiplication.

Science:

I can investigate the effect of static electricity.

Reminders and Announcements:

Breakfast is served from 7:00 to 7:45 every morning.

Food Pantry Service Project

Tuesday, October 8

We will be walking from school to First Christian Church to help with the food pantry as part of our Buddy Room Service Project. We will leave school at 8:00 and be back by 9:30. Please wear tennis shoes and weather appropriate clothing.
